

When Sense Makes Sense: Educational and Developmental Outcomes of Children Born Pre-term or with Exceptional Health Needs

Proudly supported by Glasgow Children's Hospital Charity

Thursday 9th May 2019 | 9am - 5pm (Registration from 8:30am)
Teaching and Learning Centre, Queen Elizabeth University Hospital, Glasgow

Delegate Fees

Medical Professional: £60 | Other/Allied Health Professional: £30
Education Professional: £30 | Parent: £10

Keynote Speakers

Hosted by Dr Nashwa Matta, NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde

“Educational outcomes following premature birth: What teachers need to know” -
Professor Samantha Johnson, Professor of Child Development, University of Leicester

“Early parenting intervention in infants with neurodevelopmental disabilities” - Doctor
Rosario Montiroso, PhD Clinical Developmental Psychology, Infant Research IRCCS
Eugenio Medea, Bosisio Parini, Italy

“Epigenetic regulation by early adverse experiences in the NICU: Biochemical pathways to preterm infants’ outcomes” - Livio Provenzi, Developmental Psychobiology Researcher, IRCCS Eugenio Medea, Bosisio Parini, Italy

To register, please visit: GlasgowChildrensHospitalCharity.org/sense

Glasgow Children's Hospital Charity. Scottish Charity Number SC007856

